Roof Inspection Report

2623 Anywhere Street, Hometown

Ordered by: John Doe
2623 Anywhere Street
Hometown, CA 99999

Inspected by:
February 20, 2019

Walter Backeroff

SCOPE OF THE INSPECTION:

The roof of the dwelling at the above property has been inspected by a qualified inspector employed by HomeGuard Incorporated. The professional opinion of the inspector contained in this report is solely an opinion and does not constitute a warranty or guarantee. The inspector has inspected all exterior roof components and documented in general terms the type of roof, its intended life and overall condition at the time of this inspection. Where accessible, HomeGuard Incorporated has noted all conditions that may compromise any inspected roof component's ability to shed water and/or realize its intended life. Verification of actual roof performance and/or troubleshooting of existing conditions, such as water testing, are NOT included in the scope of our inspection unless specifically requested and mentioned in our report. This inspection should not be considered a guarantee of actual roof performance, as performance is contingent upon the condition of internal system components not accessible to our inspector. This roof was not inspected for conformance to local building codes. The inspector has not inspected the attic area nor did the inspector perform a visual interior inspection looking for past or present roof performance issues. All present and prior disclosures along with other inspection reports should be reviewed and addressed prior to the close of escrow.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

Unless specifically mentioned in this report, the following are NOT included in this report: decks, balconies, detached structures, patio covers, out buildings, sheds and bonus rooms. The structure is a one story single family residence. The roof is a concrete tile, installed over spaced sheathing with no felt membrane. Although not allowable by today's building codes, this roof system was installed within acceptable standards at the time of original construction. Due to the lack of felt underlayment water penetration at the underside of the tiles is possible during conditions of excessive wind and rain. A roof system of this type requires periodic repair and maintenance work. Repair work is what we deem necessary and is not intended to correct all material and/or application flaws. The pitch of the roof appears to be 5:12. The typical life expectancy of this roofing material is 40 to 50 years. The estimated remaining serviceable life of the roof is 10 years. The overall condition of the roof is fair.

FINDINGS:

1. Debris was noted to be collecting in the gutter system. The owner is advised to contact a sheet metal contractor, or someone in this line of work, to inspect the gutter system and make recommendations and/or repairs deemed necessary. (See Photo 1)
2. Roof overview: (See Photo 2)
3. The rake to ridgeline intersection is lacking a proper seal and appears vulnerable to leakage. (See Photo 3) (See Photo 4) (See Photo 5)

RECOMMENDATION:

Seal the rake to ridgeline intersection where necessary.

4. Debris is impeding water travel at the valley. (See Photo 6)

RECOMMENDATION:

Remove debris from the valley.

5. During the course of this inspection we noted cracked and broken field tile(s). (See Photo 7) (See Photo 8) (See Photo 9)

RECOMMENDATION:

Repair and/or replace cracked and broken field tile(s) where we deem necessary.

6. Debris has collected behind the chimney and may cause to water to backup into the structure. Poor drainage can cause premature wear and tear and subsequent leakage. (See Photo 10)

RECOMMENDATION:

Clear chimney of debris, where needed to ensure proper drainage.

7. During the course of this inspection we noted unsecured field tile(s). (See Photo 11)

RECOMMENDATION:

Repair and/or replace unsecure field tile(s) where we deem necessary.

8. The plumbing jack flashing are not adequately sealed at the collars. (See Photo 12)

RECOMMENDATION:

Seal all plumbing vent collars where needed to ensure a watertight condition.

SUMMARY:

Finding numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 listed above must be corrected to ensure a watertight condition. The cost to repair these items is $1,120.00. This bid is for the conditions listed, which existed on the date of our inspection. If any contractor performs repairs on the eave, rafters or fascia or if work is performed on the structure which causes damage to the roof covering a supplemental bid will be issued upon request.

NOTICE TO OWNER - MECHANICS LIEN

Anyone who helps improve your property, but who is not paid, may record what is called a mechanic's lien on your property. A mechanic's lien is a claim, like a mortgage or home equity loan, made against your property and recorded with the County Recorder. Even if you pay your contractor in full, unpaid subcontractors, suppliers, and laborers who help to improve your property may record mechanic's liens and sue you in court to foreclose the lien. If the court finds the lien valid, you could be forced to pay twice or have a court officer sell your home to pay the lien. Liens can also affect your credit.

To preserve their right to record a lien, each subcontractor and material supplier must provide you with a document called a "20-day Preliminary Notice". This notice is not a lien. The purposes of the notice is to let you know that a person who sends you the notice has the right to record a lien on your property if he or she is not paid.

BE CAREFUL. The preliminary notice can be sent up to 20 days after the subcontractor starts work or the supplier provides material. This can be a big problem if you pay your contractor before you have received the preliminary notices. You will not get preliminary notices from your prime contractor or from laborers who work on your project. The law assumes that you already know that they are improving your property.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM LIENS. You can protect yourself from liens by getting a list from your contractor of all these subcontractors and material suppliers that work on your project. Find out from your contractor when these subcontractors started work and when these suppliers delivered goods and materials. Then wait 20 days, paying attention to the preliminary notices you receive.

PAY WITH JOINT CHECKS. One way to protect yourself is to pay with a joint check. When your subcontractor tells you it is time to pay for the work of a subcontractor or supplier who has provided you with a preliminary notice, write a joint check payable to both the contractor and the subcontractor or material supplier. For other ways to prevent liens, visit CSLB's web site at www.cslb.ca.gov or call CSLB at 1-800-321-2752.

Remember if you do nothing, you risk having a lien placed on your home. This can mean that you may have to pay twice, or face the for sale of your home to pay what you owe.

INFORMATION ABOUT CONTRACTOR'S STATE LICENSE BOARD (CSLB)

CSLB is the State Consumer Protection Agency that licenses and regulates construction contractors.
